

Verse of Blessing for the Elemental Beings
From "School of Elemental Beings" by Karsten Massei

Thanking the existence
    Which bears the house of life
    I stand before you
Spirits of the elements
Hear
    What human hearts
    Want to present to you
Ships of happiness
Are sending
    Grateful hearts
    Creating life
To you
Receive them
    Carrying them further
    Increasing
    Multiplying
    The deeds of love of humans
Who would like to be
The earth's protectors.

By uniting itself
The life of the earth continues to work
To help so that the spirits
Come together,
The human spirits
And the earth spirits
Uniting in a strong bond
Which receives
New life.

Help to bear
    What humans already bear
    Who wish
To transform the earth's suffering
So that new can arise from the new
Without pause
    The law of life
Continues to live
In everything.

Go with those
Who already walk
On whose shoulders
In whose hands and hearts
The earth already is
Their child
That they protect
As a mother
Protects life
That out of her
Arose.

So can the new become new

For in the beings of the elements
Works
Life of higher world beings.
The elemental spirits are
This higher life's Living image.

With this life the soul unites
That understands the senses' veil
As flooding work of the spirit.
Let me belong to the life
Speaking through you
Teach me to read
Teach me to behold
Teach me to understand

And take me by the hand.
